Interschool Cross Country

Thank you to the superb athletes who represented Tuart Hill Primary School at the Interschool Cross Country event on Tuesday 27 July 2021. We were very proud of your effort and perseverance. Our team did very well, achieving bronze medal status. Thank you for your teamwork and sportsmanship. Thanks Mrs Connolly for overseeing the organisation of the event, to our parents for being an awesome cheer squad as well as course marshals, to Jade for his effective warm ups and to Miss Wilson for looking after our students as they prepared for races. We had a great day.

The winners lined up to receive their applause..... Congratulations!

P&C News

The Term Three Canteen Menu is uploaded to our website and is placed in the Connect Library. Thank you for your support of our Canteen.

Join our face book page to keep up to date with everything Tuart Hill Primary School. Come along to our P&C meetings. We discuss family communications and planned school directions as well as planning how we, the parents, can continue to build our inclusive, welcoming Tuart Hill Primary School community. The Uniform Shop hopes to open for clients in need soon. We are also considering the best way to manage our second hand uniforms – watch the face book page for latest updates.

The next meeting is Wednesday 4 August, 5.45 – 7.00 pm, in the School Staff Room. Everyone is welcome 😊.
