Faction Carnival

Our Faction Athletics Carnival on Monday was superb! The weather was balmy, the track dry enough and the various stations around the school jumping with activity.

Thank you to the Phys Ed Committee and our entire staff, who worked tirelessly all day to keep students safe and marshal event participants. Thanks Di Mount Bryson for your volunteer work as Chief Announcer – you supported our Recorder to keep accurate scores, to troubleshoot and to ensure every student felt like a winner.

Thank you to our dedicated parents! We are a passionate community, fully dressed in our Faction colours, screaming loudly for our teams. The P&C Bake Sale was a success, with plenty of donations and lots of families happy to purchase goodies for their hungry superstars. Thank you, our families, for your support of our school.

Our final faction points:

Leo: 2744

Scorpio: 2600

Aquarius: 2567

Hooray! Winner, Winner Tuart Hill!

Thank you to all who put their tokens in the Jar at Grill'd – our token was drawn out and this month the school is $300 better off! We are thinking Library books or Decodable readers.... Yaaaay so nice to win a bonus.

Your jar was Winner this month. That means you will get $300! Grill'd Karrinyup is busy organising your cheque and will be in touch in the next 3-4 weeks when it's ready for you to pick up.

Until then, we want to say thank you, from the bottom of our jars, for being a part of Local Matters this month.

The community spirit shown by Tuart Hill Primary School is an inspiration to us and our guests. We can't wait to see Tuart Hill Primary School on a jar again, we'll be in touch in 12 months when you can re-apply.

But drop by for burgers whenever you're hungry!

For the love of locals,
Your mates at Grill'd
